Dear Ms. Shenon:

This letter is in response to your U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (GSA-2018-000239), dated November 29, 2017, in which you requested the following:

“Application(s) for a Schedule 84 Registration, TOTAL SOLUTIONS FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT, SECURITY, FACILITIES MANAGEMENT and any documents pertaining thereto, ever submitted to GSA by Ambitec, Inc.”

Our search of GSA records failed to identify any records or files that are responsive to your request. The GSA Program Office tasked with responding to your request has indicated that Schedule 84 has not received any offers from Ambitec, Inc. A check of our Offer Response Systems (ORS) which holds records of all offers (accepted and rejected) found no offers. In addition, GSA searched its' FSS Online for any past contracts, and searched our System for Award Management (SAM) to find the company DUNS and to see if there were any DBA's that might have been used. To conclude, there were no DBAs listed and searches using the DUNS failed to find any responsive records related to the company's name.

Since the agency does not have any records within the scope of your request, this does not constitute a denial of records. You do nonetheless still have the right to appeal the adequacy of our search for responsive records. As such, you may administratively submit your appeal online via (<https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home>) or by writing to U.S. General Services Administration at the address shown below. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within 120 days of the date of the response to your request.

Your appeal must be in writing and should contain a brief statement of the reasons why the withheld information should be released. Enclose a copy of your initial request and this partial denial. Both the appeal letter and envelope should be marked prominently, "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

This completes our action on this request.
